1. No Disclosure Required: SHAC, CARS, and Off-Campus Resources

At UNM, a student who experiences sexual misconduct can speak in complete confidentiality with a licensed counselor or a medical provider at UNM’s Student Health and Counseling (SHAC). SHAC counselors and medical providers do not report any information about an incident to the police or any other University entities. Similarly, UNM staff and faculty may speak confidentially with a licensed counselor at UNM Counseling, Assistance & Referral Services (CARS) and no information will be disclosed to any entity. Other licensed medical professionals with UNM affiliation who receive information about instances of sexual misconduct while serving in an established practitioner/patient relationship are not required to disclose information. Outside of UNM, the Rape Crisis Center of Central New Mexico and the Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (SANE) provide their services to victims of sexual violence on a completely confidential basis. These agencies provide statistical information only to UNM SMART. Additional information about Rape Crisis Center of Central New Mexico, SANE, and UNM SMART can be found in this policy, under Section 2 on “Resources Following an Act of Sexual Misconduct.”

2. Confidential/Statistical Reporting Only: Advocacy Centers at UNM

UNM's LoboRESPECT Advocacy Center, LGBTQ Resource Center, Vassar House, and Women’s Resource Center (WRC) are designated as advocacy and support centers for those who have been impacted by sexual misconduct. UNM may designate other Advocacy Centers on campus from time to time; a complete list of designated Advocacy Centers can be found at loborespect.unm.edu. Individuals who have experienced sexual misconduct may talk with these individuals anonymously; however, Advocacy Centers will report the nature, date, time, and general location of the incident to the CEEO. These reports to CEEO do not launch a University investigation. Their purpose is to help keep the Title IX Coordinator informed of the general extent and nature of sexual misconduct on and off campus in an effort to track patterns, evaluate the scope of the problem, and formulate appropriate campus-wide responses.

3. Confidential Navigators (Non-advocacy services)

These identified individuals are not required to report the disclosure to CEEO. They are, however, required to report the nature, date, time, and general location of the incident to the CEEO but will not provide identifying information without written consent from that individual. These reports to CEEO do not launch a University investigation. Their purpose is to help keep the Title IX Coordinator informed of the general extent and nature of sexual misconduct on and off campus in an effort to track patterns, evaluate the scope of the problem, and formulate appropriate campus-wide responses.

Confidential Navigators can assist with exploring options and connect people with advocates in the event one is requested. These include the Learning Environment Office (LEO) and Ombuds Services.

Compliance with the Jeanne Clery Act

Alleged incidents involving sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, and other crimes reported to individuals or offices designated as Campus Security Authorities pursuant to UAP 2745: Clery Act Compliance must be promptly reported to UNMPD. Such reports to UNMPD do not include identities, serve as an official police report, or launch a criminal or administrative investigation. Only the nature, date, time, and general location of the incident are shared so that UNMPD and the Clery Coordinator can meet UNM's federal obligation to assess each report and determine whether an emergency notification and/or timely warning to the campus community is necessary based on a serious or continuing threat to students and employees, enter the report into the daily crime log, and ensure the report is classified properly so that if necessary, it is included in UNM's annual disclosure of Clery Act crime statistics. UNM is not required to provide a timely warning with respect to crimes reported to a pastoral or professional counselor, who are exempt from CSA designation, and never publishes information that might identify a victim in any Lobo Alert, Lobo Advisory, daily crime log entry, or crime statistic. For more information about the Clery Act requirements, see UAP 2745.
